

1982 Pearson 323 for sale in Mexico

The Pearson 323 sailboat, manufactured in 1982, is a classic and reliable vessel known for its seaworthiness and comfortable cruising capabilities. With a length of 32 feet, this sailboat boasts a fiberglass hull, contributing to its durability and stability in various sea conditions. The design of the Pearson 323 emphasizes both performance and comfort, making it an ideal choice for sailors seeking a balance between speed and a smooth ride.

Equipped with a new propeller, the Pearson 323 ensures efficient propulsion, enhancing overall sailing performance. Additionally, the inclusion of new batteries speaks to the boat's commitment to modern functionality and reliability. The sailboat has the flag of Poland.

One notable feature of this Pearson 323 is its meticulous documentation, indicating that all necessary paperwork is in order. This attention to detail ensures a hassle-free ownership experience, assuring compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

Whether you're a seasoned sailor or a novice adventurer, the Pearson 323 combines traditional charm, modern functionality, and the assurance of proper documentation, making it a compelling choice for those seeking memorable and worry-free sailing experiences.

Photos

