

Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 33.1 for sale in Greece

The Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 33.1 (1997) is a well-designed and reliable sailing yacht, ideal for both coastal cruising and extended voyages. The vessel is fully operational and meticulously maintained and powered by a robust Yanmar 3GM30 30hp engine with 2,500 hours of use. Recent upgrades include a new 400Ah GEL battery, a 450W solar panel, and a Victron MPPT 100/30 charge controller, ensuring reliable power management for off-grid sailing. The boat features three double cabins, providing comfortable accommodations for up to six people, and has never been chartered, preserving its private and cared-for condition. This yacht is ready for immediate sailing adventures with a main sail in excellent condition and a genoa in good shape.

Located near Athens, the boat has been lightly used over the past six years, with seasonal sailing of just 2-3 months annually. It comes equipped with a range of extras and has undergone full servicing and a refresh, making it turn-key ready for its next owner. The option for easy transfer to another country further enhances its appeal for sailors seeking flexibility and convenience. Whether for leisurely cruising or exploring new horizons, the Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 33.1 is a capable and dependable choice.
