

The Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 44i (2011) is a well-equipped and meticulously maintained bluewater sailing yacht, ready for ocean passages and new adventures. She offers a spacious and comfortable layout featuring three cabins, a saloon, and three heads with showers.

Designed for long-distance cruising, she successfully crossed the Atlantic as part of the ARC+ Rally in November 2024.

Powered by a Yanmar 54HP engine with approximately 4,800 engine hours (as of March 2025) and regularly serviced, she ensures reliable performance.

Her electrical system includes four solar panels (460W total), a Victron battery charger with Bluetooth connectivity, and a comprehensive battery setup, all upgraded in 2024.

This yacht is rigged for serious offshore sailing, featuring a fully battened mainsail (new 2024), a furling genoa, and an asymmetrical spinnaker with a dedicated setup.

The deck is well-appointed with a double helm station, a bow thruster, a windlass with a re-galvanized 70m chain, and a foldable cockpit table with cushions.

Safety is a priority, with an EPIRB, life raft for 10 people (serviced 2024), fire extinguishers, life jackets, and an extensive set of ARC+ mandatory safety gear.

Additional onboard features include a well-equipped galley, an electric fridge/freezer, a water heater, a portable generator, and a dinghy with a 9.8HP outboard (new 2025).

Currently located in the Caribbean, she can be delivered anywhere in the Caribbean or the Southeast Coast of the U.S. upon arrangement.
