

Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 452 for sale in Venezuela

The Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 452 for sale in Venezuela is a luxury cruising yacht that strikes the optimal balance between performance, comfort and elegance. The sailboat has beautiful lines, a responsive and fast hull, a spacious deck layout, as well as an impressive saloon and 3 luxurious cabins and 2 heads.

The hull, keel, rudder, and rigging are simple and powerful and created for fast, safe, and comfortable sailing, even with a small crew. On deck, the yacht combines elegant, modern lines with easy-to-handle furling sails controlled from the huge cockpit. The innovative, high-quality interior makes your stay on board extremely pleasant. Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 452 boat has a simple rig, powerful enough for fast passages, and is surprisingly fast and stable under sail.

The sailboat has undergone work and renovations – new sails and a refurbished genoa, a reinforced rudder shaft with a stainless steel base and upgraded shroud bases, and more.

The owner is ready to make a European registration (Polish or a similar price) and transfer the boat from Venezuela to any other Caribbean territory for viewing and expertise. No payments in advance will be required.
