

Tonga 39 catamaran for sale in Panama

Description

Tonga 39 â?? cheap catamaran in San Blas, Panama, is a rare opportunity to get more than just a vessel â?? itâ??s a reliable, ocean-going home with a strong character and a proven ability to cross oceans. Whether youâ??re looking to explore the Caribbean or set sail for Polynesia and beyond, the boatâ??s proximity to the Panama Canal opens up endless possibilities.

Designed by renowned architect Derek Kelsall, this boat blends performance, safety, and comfort for bluewater cruising. Its spacious beam provides stability, while the open structure ensures easy access for maintenanceâ??a significant advantage for long-term cruising.

Equipped with twin Yanmar engines, a Selden mast, Doyle sails, and Coppercoat antifouling that lasts up to 10 years, this vessel is built for reliability and minimal upkeep.

Whether youâ??re looking to explore the Caribbean or set sail for Polynesia and beyond, the boatâ??s proximity to the Panama Canal opens up endless possibilities.

Ideal for a family or adventurous couple, this catamaran is also perfectly suited for chartering, offering the chance to recoup your investment quickly while enjoying paradise.

The boat is autonomous, with solar panels, a watermaker, and a recent set of upgrades that ensure itâ??s ready to sail today.

From the Italian AB dinghy with an 8hp Yamaha engine to the electric winch and spacious trampolines, every detail is designed for practicality and pleasure.

Strong, seaworthy, and full of personality, this catamaran delivers a unique blend of freedom and opportunity for its next owner.

Visit and test it by appointmentâ??you wonâ??t be disappointed!
