

Regal Commodore 2660 for sale

Description

The Regal Commodore 2660 (2000) is a stylish and compact cabin cruiser built by Regal Boats in the USA. This GRP-hulled motor yacht combines performance and comfort in a well-balanced design.

Powered by a robust MerCruiser 7.4 gasoline engine delivering around 330 hp via a sterndrive, the boat can reach speeds of up to 35-40 knots, depending on load and sea conditions. With a draft of just 0.9 meters and a weight of approximately 3,000 kg, it is highly maneuverable and suitable for coastal cruising.

Designed for weekend getaways, the interior features a forward V-berth, an additional aft berth under the cockpit, and a compact galley with a sink, stove, and refrigerator. The enclosed head includes a toilet and shower, while the spacious cockpit offers seating, a mini bar, and space for a removable table, ideal for entertaining.

A swim platform with ladder adds convenience for water activities. With a freshwater tank capacity of 76 liters, a holding tank of the same size, and a fuel tank of 284 liters, this cruiser is perfect for a couple or small family seeking comfort and performance on the water.
