

Tartan 37 sailboat. Yacht for sale in Maryland.

Description

If you're in the market for a classic sailboat with modern upgrades, the 1983 Tartan 37 Hull 423 is a vessel that deserves your attention. This well-maintained sailing beauty is offered for sale due to international relocation, making it an opportunity for a new owner to embark on countless adventures on the open water.

Key Features:

Repowered Excellence: One of the standout features of this Tartan 37 is its upgraded powerplant. It's been repowered with a Beta Kubota 38hp 4-cylinder engine, ensuring dependable and efficient performance on the seas. The new aluminum 53-gallon fuel tank and fuel lines provide a reliable source of power for all your sailing needs.

Enhanced Visibility: The nine newfound metals stainless steel portlights offer improved visibility and ventilation throughout the cabin. Enjoy stunning views of the sea and fresh air while relaxing inside.

Comprehensive Upgrades: No expense has been spared in maintaining this vessel. All through-hulls have been replaced, ensuring the integrity of the boat's underwater components. Additionally, new drain hoses and sanitation hoses have been installed, adding to the boat's overall functionality and comfort.

Sail in Style: This Tartan 37 comes with a main sail in great condition, ready to catch the wind and propel you on your journeys. The genoa is also in good condition, giving you versatility and performance for your sailing adventures.

With a proud history and a reputation for seaworthiness and quality construction, Tartan sailboats are known for their solid performance and comfortable living spaces. The 1983 Tartan 37 Hull 423 continues this tradition while offering the added benefits of modern upgrades and meticulous maintenance.
